

Exhibit 86

I understand but I think it's an issue in the sneaker community when an item is advertised as 100% authentic and in this one shoe in not. This is honestly the result I expected from experiences with StockX, we at Sneaker Huddle use to advertise for StockX but I've lost hope in the platform and system.

Thanks, John

Hello John,

Thank you for contacting StockX's support team! My name is Anie and I am part of StockX's specialty team. Thank you for bringing it to our attention that you are concerned with the authenticity of your Nike Air Fear Of God 1. I understand how upset you must be. I'd be happy to further assist you with this!

Per policies, if there is an issue with your item, you must reach out to us within 3 days after receiving the item and the StockX hangtag must still be attached to the item in order for us to review your product complaint inquiry. Since the tag has been removed and it's been past 3 days (the order was delivered on 8/13/19), I regret to inform you that we cannot move forward with reviewing your inquiry. You can learn more by using the links below.
